

RAY PALMER'S NEWS LETTER

The cat had to come out of the bag sometime! And as usual, the tight cover on things that exists in this country had to be broken from outside—as in previous instances, by the Russians. This time they've really done it! Let's just quote: "The Soviet news agency Tass said Tuesday (October 15, 1973) that scientists at four stations have received heretofore unheard-of signals from upper layers of the atmosphere. Tass said scientists were trying to determine if the signals were artificially or naturally produced. It said: It is not precluded that they may have been sent by a technically developed extraterrestrial civilization. Tass also said scientists have ruled out the possibility that the signals (repeated for several minutes several times a day) are from satellites launched from Earth."

It is very easy to read a report like this and fail to comprehend what it said. The mind, trained to a concept of things which is so much at variance to this new report, tends to blank it out, fails to direct any deliberate scrutiny toward it of an inductive nature. The same thing happened when the Russians first announced that the North Pole was not a point, but a line 1500 miles long. A point is without dimensions, neither wide nor long nor thick. Thus, it is incomprehensible to the mind which has accepted this latter information as fact, that there can be 1500 miles of length in a thing that can't have length! Then again when the Russians announced the discovery of a 1500-mile-long mountain range in the depths of the Arctic ocean, detected by satellite soundings and by soundings from floating icecaps on which scientific expeditions daily risk their lives making such measurements.

Strangely enough, the location of the ridge of mountains exactly coincides with the 1500-mile-long "north pole" (magnetic). No wonder polar explorers got lost! The trouble is, there is no more room on the Arctic map to put this underwater range than there is to put Admiral Byrd's fantastic "unknown land" of 1700 mile extent "beyond the pole". Beyond! What a word! You can't fly beyond the pole, only over it, across it—and nowhere near it is any such mysterious land!

But think about a strange thing: if there was a hole (1500 divided by pi) at the North pole, the place where the magnetic compass points straight down is on the "lip" of that hole where it curves into the interior of the earth, and

Giants In The Earth

By JIM WENTWORTH

In its May 21, 1951 issue, LIFE Magazine devoted 8 pages to one of the most fantastic developments in the science fiction world. It concerned the presentation in AMAZING STORIES, the world-famous granddaddy of the field, of a series of stories that were claimed to be fact, rather than fiction. It was the four-year presentation of what has become known as the "Shaver Mystery". Briefly, the author claimed that Earth was inhabited by an underground race, highly civilized, yet horribly degenerated by radioactivity, in a vast system of caverns. Their influence on the surface world was vast, but largely secret. 50,000 science fiction readers wrote letters stating they had experienced contact with the Dero and Tero, as the underground people were called (actually they were the descendents of a super race called Atlans and Titans who had fled Earth 12,000 years ago in space ships, fleeing a deadly outpouring of radioactivity from the sun). In this book, GIANTS IN THE EARTH, the author gives us the results of his 25-year study of this fantastic story, of the author himself, of the editors and publishers of AMAZING STORIES, and of the strange link between the Shaver Mystery and a tremendous 1000-page book called OAHSPÉ written in 1881, also purporting to tell of a previous civilization on this planet so remarkably similar to that detailed by the "thought records" discovered by Richard Shaver during his 8-year sojourn in his mysterious cavern realm. This book is absorbingly interesting to the student of antiquity, the anthropologist, the geologist, the mystic and psychic, the psychologist, and to those of a scientific turn of mind as well as those devoted to science fiction and its vital finger pointing at the future developments in the advancement of the human race.

A great book of "secret knowledge". The most amazing book of prophecy of the past century! The atom bomb predicted half a century ago. (Here is an actual quote.) "Radio-activity is an explosion of great violence, the energy exerted is millions of times more powerful than the highest explosive substance yet made in our laboratories; one bomb loaded with such energy would be equal to millions of bombs of the same size and energy as used in the trenches. One's mind stands aghast at the thought of what could be possible if such power were used for destructive purposes; a single aeroplane could carry sufficient to annihilate a whole army, or lay the biggest city in ruins with the death of all its inhabitants."

Men Among Mankind

By BRINSLEY Le POER TRENCH

MEN OF MYSTERY WHO ARE THEY?

The course of history has been changed abruptly, from time to time, by certain unusual men who have suddenly appeared upon the human scene. They have been few in number, but their thought and action have influenced succeeding generations. What sort of men were these? How has mankind utilized the knowledge these men have brought into the world?

What happened to mankind after the Atlantean civilization was lost? How did humanity react when Nature went mad? Where did the seeds of human culture survive? When did the world begin to recover from the effects of catastrophe? Who initiated the process of rehabilitation? Has knowledge of the source of world progress been suppressed and withheld from maturing mankind?

This book presents a scholar's answer to these and many other questions. Historical facts long obscured by Roman and Mediaeval propaganda have been examined and evaluated against an unusual but never fanciful background. The result is a new picture of mankind's history during the last ten thousand years.

THE SMOKY GOD

WILLIS GEORGE EMERSON

Olaf Jansen, a fisherman from Sweden, and his son, sailed by accident through the North Polar opening into the Hollow Interior of the Earth, and lived two years among its people. Olaf Jansen claims this is his true story as told to Willis George Emerson. He tells of a race of Super Giants, fifteen feet tall, far advanced scientifically, who treated them with the utmost kindness. He lived in peace and harmony and traveled all over their country. He claims they returned through the South Polar opening. Fascinating reading, with pictures, charts, maps.

THE MAGAZINE-WHERE YOU CAN HAVE YOUR SAY-NO OTHER MAGAZINE LIKE IT!

Ray Palmer's

Published since 1965

For many years readers of Ray Palmer's magazines said their favorite sections of his magazines were the editorials and the readers' letters with his answers to letters. Nothing Ray Palmer ever published has gotten more praise than FORUM! It is useless to describe the magazine, except to say that in it Ray and his readers express themselves as never before--and if you don't get into the act, too, you are missing the greatest!

In the days of Rome's glory, when freedom was the paramount object of human existence, it was in this place that any man could speak his mind. Here was born the concept of freedom of speech and the right to gather together and discuss and argue the issues of the day, with no fear of suppression, retribution or injustice. The Forum is only ruins today, but its sacred moral foundations still remain the major goal of mankind. This magazine is, in its small way, the spirit of that ancient forum.

MONTHLY

Subscription:
$3.00 per year

In this new day of self-expression in the Aquarian age, people everywhere are looking for ways to say what they feel and think, and to share with others--to communicate. Since most of the managed media is closed to them, there is little opportunity for the individual to get his message across, or to contact others to learn how they feel. FORUM magazine was founded for this prime purpose, to provide an arena where you can stand up and be listened to, answered and be counted. There is no subject that is taboo in FORUM. Honesty and sincerity and openness are the watchwords of this absolutely unique little magazine. Even if you know only 800 words, you are on the podium of expression with the most gifted writers. And you will be amazed at the company you will keep! No matter who you are, FORUM is YOUR magazine.

the "mountain range" is just the seabottom at this same lip where the water grows much shallower because of centrifugal force due to the rotation of the earth—no mountains, just a lessening of the depth of the water! And photographs from space consistently show a strange marking or depression the same size at the precise geographical pole. The north magnetic (1500 mile long) pole and the 1500 mile long Lomonsov Ridge are one and the same, and NOTHING can explain them but a hole!

We'll get back to this later, but right now we have such sensational news to report, we'll have to concentrate solely upon it. It was only on October 11, four days before the Russian announcement, that two Mississippi fishermen, Charles Hickson and Calvin Parker, were surprised by a blue UFO and carried into it by three reddish-looking beings, whose wrinkled bodies seemed to be unclothed, who had crab-like claws instead of hands, no toes on stubby round feet, no mouth, and emitted only humming sounds instead of words. Inside the craft, they were subjected to a scientific "examination" and scanned by some sort of electronic eye, then released. On October 15, John Lane, a Gulfport taxi driver, told police a blue object landed in front of his cab, stalled it causing the radio to go dead, and a flesh-colored creature with a crab-like claw emerged and tapped on his windshield. James Thornhill, a Civil Defense radar watcher at Columbia, picked up a blip on his screen moving much faster than a helicopter can travel, which then stopped and hovered about three miles away. Dr. Allen Hynek and Dr. James Harder, famous UFO researchers, placed Hickson and Parker under hypnosis, and declared they were "telling the truth beyond reasonable doubt." UFO sightings since then have assumed the proportions of the most gigantic "flap" of all time. Only now, many scientists and governments are taking them very seriously. No one is laughing any more.

In spite of this, however, the customary propaganda wave to "put down" the reports is taking place. Let me give you several typical examples, which you can recognize as patently fraudulent: 1.—"The North American Air Defense Command (NORAD) said that there are 6866 pieces of space junk orbiting the earth and they are falling to earth daily, often causing bright displays similar to some UFO sightings." 2.—Under the headline SHOT DOWN—CHECKOUTS ZAP A FEW UFOs, we have the following: Believers in unidentified flying objects had a few of their theories shot down Thursday night...we won't go into details, but what was seen were "searchlights marking the opening of a new store; a hoax by local firemen who illuminated a bright orange disk with a Fire Department generator—they were fined for disorderly conduct; police in Indiana also captured three UFOs, plastic trash bags with wooden crosspieces supporting tiny lighted candles. 3.—Headline: UFO SIGHTINGS LIKELY IN WAKE OF BALLOONS. Weather research balloons have prompted a new rash of reports of unidentified flying objects throughout the South, and UFO-bugged authorities are bracing for more reports. A huge balloon, 150 feet in diameter, was launched at Palestine, Texas, and authorities said it drifted over Mississippi at a constant 50,000 foot altitude. Meanwhile officials at Eglin Air Force Base in Florida have announced high atmospheric rocket tests and cautioned that the rockets could easily be mistaken for UFOs. Air Force officials said the rockets would release glowing clouds of red, green, blue and yellow gases. Despite these official explanations, residents of Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and South Carolina continue to inundate local sheriff's offices with reports of UFO.

Lastly, we recently reported the death of the radioman who was with Admiral Byrd on his two flights over the North Pole in 1929. It has always been claimed that there was only one. But now, coincident with the saucer flap, the death of Bernt Balchen, Byrd's pilot on his first flight over the North Pole in 1929, was announced. Funny how the truth slips out in these tiny one-inch reports that come from local newspaper files, like that of Mt. Kisko, N.Y.

It looks as though we've been right all along on at least two points—there is a strangeness about the North Pole that may include unknown lands, may include a hole, may include anything—which has been LIED ABOUT!—and that we were right about "unsuspected civilizations in our atmosphere" visible only on radar, and that world governments have been listening in for many years (remember Grote Reber?).

During the first part of October, strange intelligent signals began to occur repeatedly and daily from our atmosphere. During October, a gigantic UFO flap began, and actual contacts were made, this time at least one that cannot be denied, and which has startled the world. And almost immediately the Air Force went into its usual act, and released all the "explanations" which they know from experience will turn the general public off again, to return to their TV sets, their late movies, their snowmobiles, and their daily glass of beer and their unthinking complacency about the world and how "God's in his heaven, and all's right with the world". Think for just a few seconds about the Mississippi experiences, and the "official" explanations. Do they explain them to YOU? If they do, don't read any further, because you'll NEVER consider for a moment what I'm going to say now!

First, I'm going to quote from a newspaper story of October 20, 1973. The headline is COMPUTER INTRUSION. It reads as follows:

"Computer data banks have come under increasing criticism for the very reason of their popularity: ease of storing voluminous data and equal ease of retrieval of any part of that data on quick notice. In most industrial uses, this may not attract attention. But in instances of personnel data banks, the innocence of the system may take on a different hue.

Studies have been made of the uses of computer data collection and storage systems which indicate abuses of information concerning the private lives of many individuals may be possible. A recent federal inquiry concluded with the recommendation that tighter controls be placed on computerized record-gathering, especially release of the information.

Another reason for such controls has been uncovered by the Senate Banking Committee. A series of medical data banks exist which make available to insurance companies and others confidential medical histories.

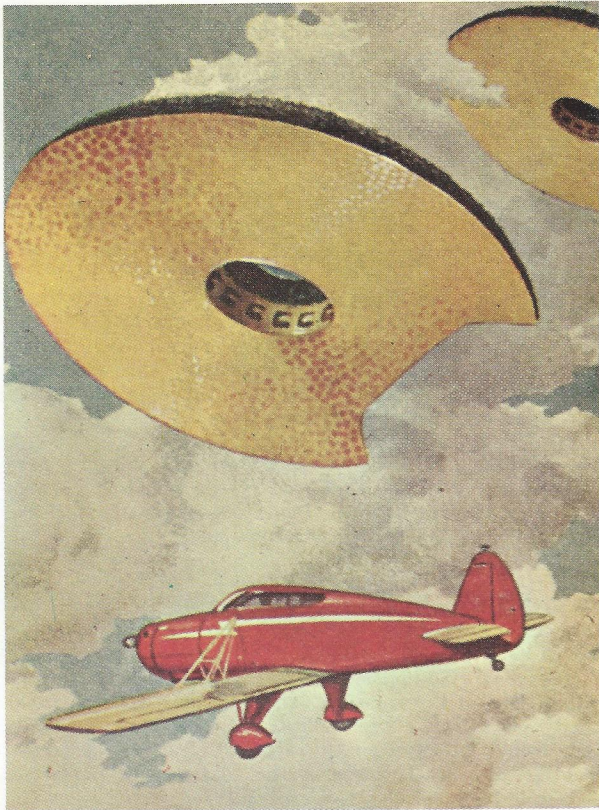

Contained in these files is information gathered from hospitals, insurance companies, physicians and industrial concerns. Included in the information so loosely handled are personal habits and problems, medical histories and even hobbies.

If there is one category of personal information an individual has a right to expect to remain confidential, it is the record created by his visits to a doctor. That such information, in some cases, is freely handed over to others, without the patient's knowledge, ought to be a violation of law as it certainly is of ethics."

Before I explain the reason for this clipping being reproduced, I want to mention another thing that will prove to be highly relevant. Several months ago, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) discontinued its practice of sending pertinent material and informational releases to our basic (and most profitable) magazine, SPACE WORLD. Since we depend on this source for material for this magazine, which is widely read by students, and counts thousands of colleges, universities, high schools and libraries in its subscription list, and which is regarded as the world's foremost authority on the space program and how it works and what it is achieving, you can see the problem this creates. It is very difficult to understand, particularly since SPACE WORLD has always been in the forefront of championing the US Space Program, and urging greater federal funding of this most important operation—our very future existence as a nation may depend on it! Why cut off their own nose? But aha! A reporter at Cape Kennedy inadvertently spilled the beans: "because you also publish FLYING SAUCERS!" So that's the name of the game, eh?

Now we come to the "Computer Intrusion". Maybe you don't know it, but even you are a "file" on tape in a gigantic building in West Virginia. You'd

The COMING of the SAUCERS

FLYING SAUCER DISCOVERER Kenneth Arnold

EDITED AND WRITTEN BY RAY PALMER

The original flying saucer book! It was Kenneth Arnold who gave the saucers their name, and he wrote the best book of them all. This is the famous book that tells the true story of the death-dealing "Maury Island Incident" in which two Air Force Intelligence men lost their lives, and Arnold himself barely escaped with his skin. To those in the know, this story is the key to the whole U.F.O. mystery. Perhaps the entire significance of this amazing adventure will never be told, but what you will read in this book will stagger you. No fiction mystery could ever match this true story.

THE ANCIENT EARTH—ITS STORY IN STONE

By Richard S. Shaver

Did the ancient races of Earth record their history in the stones of Earth, great "rock libraries" which are now in ruins, and the precious "rock books" scattered about the landscape? Were these histories stored in the rocks by means of some sort of ray, and if we had the proper machine to use as a "play back", could we see actual moving pictures of the distant past and ancient peoples? In our modern science, it is now possible to store pictures permanently in pieces of crystal the size of sugar cubes. A laser beam is used to imprint the pictures in the crystal. This can be done not only with photographs, but also with maps, drawings, statistics and other information. A crystal somewhat smaller than a sugar cube could hold one trillion bits of information. A laser is used to retrieve the pictures. A minute turn of the crystal makes it possible to switch from one picture to the other. Now, in this new book, strange stones discovered in Wisconsin have been cut with a diamond saw, and pictures have been discovered! By slowly turning the stone, the scenes change. This new book is the result of the author's study of these rock "books" and it reveals a whole new vista of the ancient races of Earth. Further experiments with laser retrievers is going forward, and a fantastic breakthrough in human knowledge may be on the threshold of history! Are these strange "rock books" actually the Akashic Records mystics have been talking about?

be surprised what they know about you. And most of it would make you furiously angry, and horribly afraid!

Everything Ray Palmer does is there. It includes such information as to the number of subscribers to each of our magazines; when we usually have mail campaigns to sell our products (biggest one is our Christmas mailings, usually); when we are in need of loans from our bank; how much we ever borrowed; how we paid it back; how much we still owe, mortgages, etc. It is a simple matter to ask the computer to come up with an analysis of what can be done to provide the most financial embarrassment for Ray Palmer, most hurt his publications company, most hinder his operations, etc. etc. Well, recent researches on our own show a startling fact—every time we needed to borrow money on our property and machinery, via mortgaging it, some governmental (or other) harassment occurred. Is it a coincidence? Not by a long shot! One of the things that happens is that the insurance company (three times now!) has canceled our insurance (fire and wind, etc.) just at about the time we usually find it necessary to make loans. October 19, we learned that once again we are without insurance (since Sept. 1, 1973) and were not notified personally, nor our insurance agent, but guess who WAS notified—our bank! The holder of our mortgage. In spite of the fact that the insurance company had never been informed that we had a mortgage at that bank. No reason given for the cancellation. But the computer knew of our loans at the bank, knew of the insurance, knew that the bank will not lend any money to uninsured persons.

Another thing: the computer knew who sells us paper—four companies are our suppliers. All four companies suddenly stopped calling on us, suddenly demanded cash on delivery for paper, and worse, told us there wasn't any paper for us (in spite of the industry-wide policy created by the government to "ration paper on the basis of purchases over the previous 12 months"). We've had to go to some remarkable lengths to get paper! We even bought from Germany, bought out the stocks of two "job lot and seconds" houses (had to pay cash for every sheet!).

However, let's just forget about all that—the only reaction will be to point out that we have a "persecution complex" and in our paranoia see "men in black" plotters lurking behind every telephone pole and every dark corner. What we want to do now is tell you something we've only hinted at for years. It has to do with our "fact" that has been challenged so many times. Many of you have said "put up or shut up". First, let's say that there is an organization (let's call it that—The Organization—because this is the sort of group you don't name; not unless you want to wind up under the wheels of a truck or with a bullet in the back of your head). The Organization is the real power behind the governments of the world. It is the same group we've many times called the Hidden or Secret Government. Most people can't swallow that, because they insist on looking all around the world for the people who constitute that government. The trouble is, one of them might be your neighbor, but oddly enough, your neighbor would not know he was a member of The Organization! But you might be able to identify him by his philosophy of life. He would fit neatly into the PLAN! That's really my "fact"—I long ago discovered the Plan. Once you know what the plan is, you can determine the truth or untruth of what anyone says to you—in the sense that you know if he is a prankster, a liar, or really telling the truth. The plan is so fantastic that no prankster or liar, no matter how imaginative, can tell you something that fits the plan. So, if it doesn't fit, you can disregard it. Simple enough, isn't it?

Now that the Russians have let the cat out of the bag, there's no secret any more. But it IS a fact that what I've been saying for many years, that we don't know very much about the true nature and dimensions of this planet Earth, is true. We don't know that there are other civilizations inhabiting what we choose to call "the atmosphere", but ordinarily invisible to us by the usual senses. Also, there is a "barrier" to communication and contact between those civilizations and ours. It has been, for thousands of years, as impossible to bridge for them as it is for us—except that they knew about us, while we were totally unaware of them.

That is, we were unaware of them until June 24, 1947. On that day the "flying saucers" were born. Not that Kenneth Arnold's famous sighting was our first awareness of an unknown something, because UFO phenomena have been with us as far back as mankind remembers, but in 1947 it became a matter of world consciousness, and wouldn't go away.

Coincident with the UFO phenomenon, the use of radar became world-wide. And almost immediately the "blips" began to appear, mystifying scientists and radar technicians and electronics experts. The really startling stunner came when Grote Reber began recording intelligent Morse-type signals from "a star". Only it wasn't a star, it was a fixed location in our atmosphere. We proved to our own satisfaction that it couldn't be "signals" from outer space, but had to be in the range of 100 miles to perhaps as much as 10,000 miles from the surface of Earth. How important the matter was became evident when Grote Reber was given a $10,000,000 "receiver" in Hawaii to "listen in". It was once more camouflaged from the public by calling it a listening post for "hissing noises from distant stars or galaxies". This was reasonable, because some distant galaxies DO hiss. But how can you tell the public that you are getting intelligent signals from 100 miles up? It just can't be so! A race of civilized people like us, living on some "continent in the sky" and as transparent as air!

And what about the proof that there isn't actually anything there, at the location of those radar reflections? Those seen on airport radar, checked out by flying a real plane through the very spot the "blip" occupies, reveals that while it takes a solid object to reflect a radar beam, there was no resulting crash in midair, and nothing visible to the pilot of the plane. "Nothing here," he reports. Then, when our astronauts passed through all of the atmosphere and space between us and the moon, once more the report is: "Nothing here, either." Except some weird things like UFOs even out there, mysterious things like "fireflies" (easily explained as droplets of water or paint flakes from the spacecraft) and the sound of fire engines clanging and sirening their way to a fire!

But now the Russians have said it: "hitherto UNHEARD-OF signals from the UPPER ATMOSPHERE." Think of it a moment; the use of the words "unheard-of" and "upper atmosphere". You can bet your tintype it's "unheard-of"! Positively incredible and unbelievable—BUT TRUE. Then the Russians go on to say they have RULED OUT that the signals can possibly be from satellites, either theirs or ours. And finally, they state that it is impossible to "preclude that the signals may be sent by a technically developed extraterrestrial civilization." By "technically developed" they mean "highly developed, technically, far beyond anything WE can do on good old Terra". And when they say "extra" terrestrial, they DON'T mean far away in deep space, but just not on the surface of this planet. Extra-surface! Super-technical civilizations in our upper atmosphere, sending intelligent signals—and a sudden flurry of these signals is accompanied by a tremendous UFO flap which finally cannot be explained away!

At Kitty Hawk the Wright brothers made it possible for our civilization to become "extra-surface"! From that day on, we flew in the atmosphere, an environment much less "dense" than the solid earth we usually walked on. And not only that, we've gone to the moon! What has happened is that a "reverse" invention occurred in that "upper atmosphere" civilization—they have invented a machine that gives them the capability of traveling TO THE SURFACE. Now they can come amongst us, and not only travel in our environment, but do something never before possible, bridge the gap that previously made our physical bodies immune to their touch! You might call it a "dimension-density craft". Now we can bounce a rock off them, not just a radar beam. And vice versa, they can stick needles in us, examine us, scan us with electronic instruments, measure, analyze and experiment on us. And, if necessary, burn us, x-ray us, blind us,

FLYING SAUCERS

PUBLISHED

Founded in 1953

Subscription: $3.00 Per Year

America's only fact magazine with complete coverage of the famous UFO.

Flying saucers are a fact. A national poll has proved that one American in every four is aware of the truth of that statement. In spite of this, FLYING SAUCERS magazine is the only publication devoted to presenting all the facts and all the latest news concerning unidentified flying objects. It is the only magazine wherein the public can pierce the fog in which official sources have shrouded a matter of vital and general public concern. Here is a magazine you can depend on to keep you up to the minute on every development. Today man is aiming his sights at the stars. He intends to fly to other planets. But are the inhabitants of other worlds already visiting us? It may be so, but even if not, this magazine is writing daily history of the new space age!

HOW TO CONTACT SPACE PEOPLE
By Ted Owens

$4.95

The runaway best-selling Saucerian Book. Ted Owens tells us about his communication with the "SI's" (Space Intelligences). He has been able to predict the great Eastern Blackout, influence the occurrences of Hurricanes, and perform other marvels as a result of this vast knowledge he obtained from beings not of this Earth. Owens tells YOU in this book how YOU can contact the "SI's" and obtain wonderful benefits from the superhuman knowledge you can obtain. Warning! If you are not sincerely interested in contacting these beings, or if you wish to use these great powers for selfish purposes, do not order this book. It is powerful medicine! The symbol of the Space Intelligences has worked wonders for many people as a parapsychological focal point for these great powers. Many readers have acclaimed "HOW TO CONTACT SPACE PEOPLE" as the most important book ever published in this field. It is a large (8½ x 11") volume, with beautiful full-color featuring the painting of a Space Intelligence.

PROJECT BLUEBOOK
By Dr. Leon Davidson

$7.95

Dr. Davidson's monumental work of more than 140 large 8½ x 11 in. pages has never been nationally circulated, its having been privately printed by him in the past. This new updated version will be even more valuable as an historical document than the previous three editions. Most of our readers will recall that this special Air Force Report was released in 1955, but made available to the public only at AF Information Offices, and hence its readership was very limited. Dr. Davidson managed to secure a copy of this document and made reproductions of it so that UFO researchers and others could fully study it. Perhaps the most interesting section of this Air Force Book-Length Report was a list of twelve "best" sightings of saucers which it still can't explain or discount. Descriptions of these sightings, along with the original drawings of the objects, are included in this latest edition. This new edition also contains most of the official releases by the Air Force and, along with Dr. Davidson's interesting notes, provides an excellent history of the AF's investigation. Reproduction of actual letters from Dr. Davidson's files provides further documentation to his contention that the AF was "covering up" the real solution to the saucer mystery.

INNER EARTH PEOPLE
By Michael X

$2.00

Has the legend of "Rainbow City"—a secret city said to be located beyond the South Pole in Antarctica—any basis in FACT? This book gives you the astounding facts. You will not be able to put the book down once you start reading. Is Rainbow City a base for FLYING SAUCERS that come out from INSIDE Earth? Does an ancient race of inner Earthians exist?

SECRETS OF HIGHER CONTACT
By Michael X

$2.00

Who are the Space People? How may YOU contact them? This book reveals how mind-to-mind contacts are made between higher space beings and "Contactees" on planet Earth. Tells about the Brothers of the Higher Arc and how to prepare yourself most effectively for "higher contact". This book helps you answer the Big Question: Will you be a Contactee?

THE BOOK OF SPACE BROTHERS

By Timothy Green Beckley

"TIMOTHY GREEN BECKLEY'S BOOK OF SPACE BROTHERS" is well illustrated and printed in large 8½ x 11" format. Here are just a few of the messages contained in this book: "MY FIRST TRIP" by Henry R. Gallart. An ordinary Earthman remembers a previous incarnation from which he was sent here to Earth to assist in our karmic development. "WHAT MANNER OF PLACE IS THIS?" channeled by a Houston Science Discussion Group, in which space people comment upon the insane, twisted and distorted shape of the spiritual development of Earth. "MY VISITATION" by Lenore Croft, in which the sensitive details the physical visitation by a beautiful being from another solar system. "THE SPACE PEOPLE SPEAK ON REINCARNATION AND KARMA" by Helios and Vestra. "A PLANETARY COMMUNIQUE"—as received by Bob Short. "VOICE TONES," a lecture given by Xyclon, a space psychologist. "THE FIRST PHASE OF ARMAGADDON IS COMPLETE," by Deska, Central Government Communicator Saturn Council. And other chapters, including information on the "Gruesome Etheric Border Patrol," warning that not all space people are friendly. Also, information on how you can build your own LIGHT BEAM COMMUNICATOR, with detailed drawings.

THE WRIGHT FIELD STORY

By James W. Moseley

$4.95

*KIDNAPED BY SPACEMEN—The incredible, first inside-story of the mysterious disappearance of Hunrath and Wilkinson, who had been closely associated with George Adamski. Reveals how they broke with Adamski after Hunrath invented a secret machine, concealed in a black box, which purportedly would cause saucers to crash. *A VISIT WITH ADAMSKI—Now published for the first time are Moseley's personal observations of the great saucer seer. *THE WRIGHT FIELD STORY—This will convince many readers that a crashed saucer, captured by the Air Force, was brought to a well-known U.S. Air Force Base and there examined by top scientists. *THE MYSTERIOUS "DR. D."—A top atomic Physicist with a "Q" clearance believes that the CIA is behind the "hush-up" of UFO reality. *A MYSTERIOUS VISITOR—Gives Moseley some photographs of saucer-shaped craft which fade away, leaving no proof. He tells Moseley the saucers originate from the polar regions. *MOSELEY'S EARTH THEORY—Reveals how certain articles were published in SAUCER NEWS as a "smoke screen" to hide the fact that he had cancelled plans to publish important revelations he had promised. *THE NIGHT LONG JOHN WAS CUT OFF THE AIR—Why was the famous all-night radio "talk" personality suddenly cut off the air while discussing the saucer mystery? The above is only a sketchy outline of the fascinating material in "THE WRIGHT FIELD STORY."

FLYING SAUCERS ARE WATCHING YOU

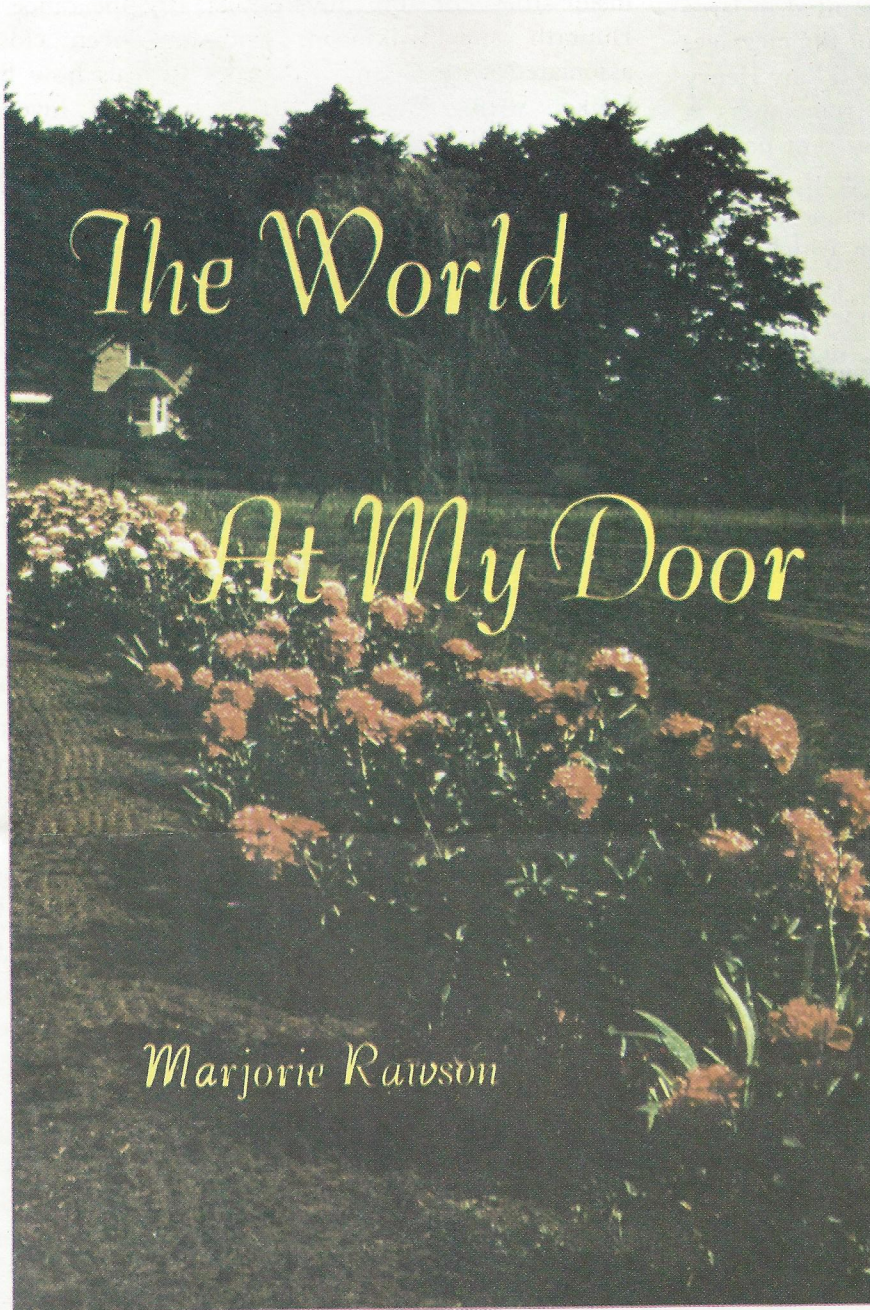

By John C. Sherwood

$3.95

The incident at Exeter and the incredible Michigan flap. This book represents one of the two existing full reports of sighting concentrations. John Fuller had earlier done an excellent job in reporting fully on New England sightings in "Incident at Exeter". It was written for popular consumption, however. "Flying Saucers Are Watching You" more fully approaches the status of being a definitive work, which will be of tremendous value to researchers for years to come—for it will give them a complete picture of a single "flap".

Marjorie Rawson lives in a little town called Poy Sippi, in Wisconsin. She writes a regular weekly column for a local paper called the Argus, located in Waushara county. The column is about events and people in and about Poy Sippi, reminiscences that go back to the turn of the century and beyond. However, the book would fit any state in the Union with its wonderful homey picture of just ordinary people of a time in our nation's history when life was both good, and full of trials and tribulations. It has many a chuckle, and many a nostalgic memory, and many a revelation of interesting things not seen or experienced today. The book depicts a way of life that we have lost.

Marjorie Rawson's book is a vivid picture of the true values in our American way of life, the values and the way which is rapidly vanishing. Here we have a picture of the past, and of people who lived in the vague beginnings of the great danger that threatens us today, and that picture, by its sheer contrast, is extremely revealing.

But no matter, if you are not that type of deep thinker, this book is a wonderful book. It will please many, for many reasons. It is a treasure of nostalgia, crammed with the simple verities that are the real essence of life. It is a delightful book, and one that is absorbingly interesting to young and old alike.

THE FAMOUS "HEAVEN" BOOKS

By M. R. KEITH

No. 1 WHAT EVERYBODY OUGHT TO KNOW ABOUT HEAVEN

There is no single topic concerning which there is more misconception than the Here-after. The general public is not aware of the intensive investigative work done in the past hundred years, nor the combined knowledge which has been obtained concerning the after-death life of man. Compiler Keith lists and analyzes 62 books, tells you where to get them, and briefs the contents of each. He also covers psychics, proofs, seers, occultists and mystics.

ISBN: 910122-21-0 $2.50

No. 2 SO YOU'RE GOING TO HEAVEN?

This is the second book in the trilogy written by Mr. Keith. We, as editors and publishers, have never seen so enlightening and comprehensive a survey of all the literature written on the subject, and we consider this book to be invaluable to anyone who believes in life after death and what it must be like. Some chapter headings: Travel Folder—Passport—Luggage—Transportation—Transition—Ports Of Entry—The Solidity Of Heaven—Locomotion—Clothing—Body—Time—Nourishment—Family and Social Life—Work and Play—Government—Flowers, Fruits and Trees—Scenery—Pets In Heaven—The Waters Of Heaven—Houses and Also Mansions—An Administrative Palace—The Cities Of Heaven—Instruction—Art Galleries—Music—Fabrics—Libraries—Science—Children—Spirit Helpers—Worship—Boundaries—A Visit To An Upper Realm—Planes—A Visit To The Lower Regions—Lower Planes—In Space, But Where?—Place Or State, Which?—Look Us Up Some Time—References.

No. 3 HOW I FOUND OUT ABOUT HEAVEN

This is the book that sums up all the research of a lifetime. M.R. Keith was a Minneapolis lawyer whose practical mind led him to be meticulous in his search for the vaguely referred to realm called heaven. Did it really exist? he asked. Was there a way to find out? In his book, written just before he died, and published after his death, you will journey through nearly 70 years on a marvelous saga of curiosity-driven adventure toward a goal that becomes magnificently realized. Witness the titles of some of the 32 chapters in this beautifully written book: Doctrine And Still More Doctrine; I Witness A Foretold Crossing; A Student Of Yoga; I Discover Heaven; Arthur Conan Doyle; Raymond, Son Of Oliver Lodge; Plagues, Earthquakes And Opinions; Delegated Worship; The Managed Mind; The Lost Emphasis; Standardized Prayers; Pagan Prayers; Man's Greatest Power... Said Mr. Keith: "I sincerely believe every word that I have written. In fact, I am certain of it. This statement is not based on "faith" or "belief". It is grounded on data which I have gathered over a period of more than 50 years. I know that you will never cease to exist!"

A DOCTOR IS BORN

DR. W. D. CHESNEY, M.D.

RETAIL PRICE: $3.50

A book by a doctor who tells what he thinks about medical trade unions, malpractice, kickbacks, fee-splitting, unnecessary surgery, food poisons, poison sprays, drug monopoly, medical quieting practices against the traditions of the Hippocratic Oath. These are the lifetime notes of a General Practitioner, now too old to practice, but determined to speak out against the evils that medical monopoly bottled up for a half-century. What he says is backed up by documentary proof. His book is not an attack upon doctors in general nor on the practices of medicine in toto; it is directed only against those whose practices must be exposed to save the lives and health of thousands who will suffer or die needlessly because of greed, carelessness and ignorance. Many good doctors know the truth, but cannot speak, because to do so would mean personal financial disaster, and ousting from practice.

stop our cars and radios, and even kill us. But mostly, they can NOW CARRY OUT THEIR PLAN! A plan that was formulated as much as 2000 years ago, and much accelerated about 400 years ago. A plan to become absolute rulers in their own environment, in competition with their own contending civilizations and nations (just as we try to do!), by using us as the balance of power. Whoever controls us, rules their world!

For many years now we've been hearing of such things as extrasensory perception. Another name for it might be psychic ability. Some people have it to a large degree, most don't. Everybody has a small degree of sensitivity, a few have enough to be called "mediums" or "psychics" or "sensitives". What it really amounts to is the same thing as a sort of "radar" capable of detecting things beyond the five senses. Some of us have "seen" the "aliens" among us. We've "sensed" the presence of "entities" that are variously labeled; ghosts, phantoms, spirits, demons, deros and teros, elementals, doppelgangers, devils, angels, visions—what have you. The truth of the matter is they may all be one and the same thing—inhabitants of that "civilization in the sky" separated from us by some extra-dimensional or vibratory or density barrier, capable only of vague and evanescent penetration by unusual persons who have some of the capabilities of both environments. But no longer! Now they've found a way to come to us.

In 1944 we first made the discovery that there was a link between physical damage to the human body, and psychic vulnerability. Let's take Richard Shaver, for example, and Roger Graham (Rog Phillips), and to be fair, myself. Shaver and Graham, both electric arc welders. Both damaged, in that their psychic armor was breached so as to allow "outside" influences which psychiatrists call paranoia and schizophrenia to effect them. In short, such things as "hearing voices" and seeing things that "exist only in the mind". Such things as being able to see things at a distance, travel astrally, foretell the future, remember a past that occurred before they were born, and on and on. In the past, very popular since the days of the Fox sisters, the way the "spirit world" contacted us was through the seance, a difficult, and very unsatisfactory way. People were "controlled" by some outside agency usually called the "spirits of the dead". Only they claimed they were not dead, but very much alive and living in a sort of "the world in the sky".

Assuming that total control was what was wanted, a new method had to be found. Accidents that damaged the nervous system sometimes worked. Drugs like LSD (which expanded the consciousness) were partially effective, but mostly uncontrollable and very dangerous. Richard Shaver first told about it in his stories of the ancient past, where a form of control existed called "romantic" (ro—robotic; man—just what it says; tie—science), the scientific way to control the actions of man, to make him a compliant robot-like citizen who won't cause any trouble. Well, we have that today, now in its experimental stages. Let's quote Robert McDonald, of the Christian Science Publishing Society (funny how religious publications are more likely to tell you the reliable political truth!): BRITISH COMPANY HAS CONTROL DEVICE TO USE ON HUMANS. "A British electronics firm has developed a crowd control device which incapacitates people by interfering with their brain waves. Known as a photic driver, it uses flashing lights and pulsing sound to disturb normal rhythms of the brain.

Once again, the advance of technology has produced a device, potentially attractive to police, which raises serious questions about the morality and safety of using supposedly benign weapons against civilian crowds.

The brain rhythms concerned, called alpha rhythms, are associated with electrical impulses in the brain about which scientists know little. Their frequency varies from person to person in a range of about 15-24 cycles per second.

A slight variation of half a pulse a second has been associated with loss of control of various body functions.

The photic driver uses flashing infrared "light" and pulsing ultrasonic noise to pull these brain waves from their normal frequency. The individual subjected to the treatment sees and hears nothing.

If the alpha rhythms are disturbed at frequencies exceeding an individual's threshold, experts believe the effect may be to cause epileptic fits.

Bovill admits that his device might make "a very few people very ill."

The device would effectively debilitate anyone within a six-hundred-foot radius. Demonstrators would not have to be in the direct path of the "light" to be influenced. "Light" reflected off buildings would also affect them and "sound" reverberating in a narrow street would add to the confusion.

Police using the equipment would have to work from inside a closed van watching the operation via television. Phalanxes of foot police, who would eventually have to disperse the demonstrators, would have to be withdrawn from the area until the "light" and "sound" were switched off.

Bovill says that he would operate his equipment at about 11 cycles per second, well below the critical threshold of 15 cycles per second.

At such speeds, people would become lethargic, dizzy, and perhaps nauseous. Some rioters would put their hands over their eyes and other would put their fingers in their ears.

They would feel depressed and say to themselves: 'I don't like this environment. I must get out of here.'

Well, that's a primitive method, because much more refined methods of robotic control exist, including implanting receivers in the brain. You've heard of the Spanish bull that became as placid as a cow in the bull-ring when subjected to the radio signal of the proper frequency?

Hypnosis has always been considered as a way toward total mind control, and it has been used very often in such things as "faked" UFO reports, as well as in determining that similar reports were NOT faked (like the Mississippi contact!). But this sort of "telepathic" control can now be used with tremendous effect since the new phase of actual physical contact between that "technically developed extraterrestrial civilization in our upper atmosphere" just reported by the Russians, and our own surface world has been achieved. Formerly, it took such inadequate things as the ouija board and "automatic writing" etc. There was also obsession and possession. No longer mysterious psychic things, but very physical and often purely mechanical. We'll have much to say about those things in other publications. That is why I say that The Organization may well have as one of its members the man next door with the extremely liberal political viewpoint! He may very well be either under mental control, or be one of those intelligent persons from that unbelievable civilization in the sky!

Today many saucer buffs believe that there are members of alien civilizations from other worlds infiltrating our government. The truth may be dual: infiltration, and mentally controlled. It is in the "other worlds" concept that the error occurs—or perhaps not a literal error, because I would have to agree that there are "Venusians" among us, but in NAME only! What I want to say is that these "atmospheric civilizations" the Russians have discovered often give themselves the same names (in a zodiacal sense) as the planets of the solar system, and even other star systems. Thus, if Adamski is taken to Venus, he need not have been taken further than a few hundred miles to a very solid appearing (because of the newly invented machine we call a flying saucer) place which is actually named Venus. Maybe even the people who live there believe it to be Venus!

There is so much to say to explain all these disconcerting statements that cannot be said here, but which we intend to cover completely eventually in our publications, but basically it clarifies the stand taken by the Air Force in its stock reply to anyone who queries about UFO. Their stand is, and always has been, as a matter of policy, as follows: 1. No UFO reported, investigated, and evaluated by the Air Force has ever given any indication of threat to our national security. (The reason for that stand is because they don't fear the attack of phantasms.) 2. There has been no evidence submitted to or discovered by the Air Force that sightings categorized as unidentified represent technological developments or principles beyond the Document 96—A Rationale for Flying Saucers, by Frank Martin Chase, is offered in a paper bound folio 8 x 11, 125 pages, well illustrated with artist's conceptions of the space vehicles described in the text, and with diagrams of the mechanical principles given. The book offers many concise descriptions of the best known sightings with a chart indicating the "inexplicable nature" of each case, as well as the "most probably scientific cause". Presented, also, is much scientific data relative to nuclear power, atmospheric anomalies, plasma and related subjects. The questions of whether or not the disc-like craft may be man-made and man piloted is thoroughly explored, pro and con. The subject is then related to the matter of supposed government censorship of sighting reports. The experience of Rex Bell near a nuclear power plant in 1940 is correlated to incidences in the area 28 years later, with some possible implications being drawn. A listing of a few of the chapter sub-titles will indicate the range of topics covered: UFOs and National Economic Problems; Seeming Correlations; Can the Dynamical Principles of Disc-Craft be Revealed?; the Oberdorfer-Gurtheman Tale; the Micro-Nuclear Thrust Engine; and the Ten Astonishing Cases of the Little Men.

THE PAST	{	HISTORY OF 79,000 YEARS!
THE PRESENT	{	FORCES BEHIND EVENTS OF TODAY!
THE FUTURE	{	PREVIEW OF THE DESTINY OF THIS PLANET!

This edition of OAHSPE contains 1008 pages. It also contains nearly three quarters of a million words, and calculating from actual time of writing, it was written at the rate of 120 words per minute! This on an 1880 Sholes typewriter is a miracle in itself. Many of the drawings in OAHSPE were done at the same time . . . in the dark! The Book of Cosmology might have been written by today's space scientists! Much of the science in OAHSPE has only recently been "discovered". Newbrough could not have "guessed" so rightly, especially in the face of all the authorities of his day. Today space satellites are discovering "how it is" out in space, while in 1882 OAHSPE contained the same information! As an instance, the now famous Van Allen radiation belts, complete as to nature and height! The scientific reader is overwhelmed by the science of OAHSPE.

Do you think flying saucers are new? Then read OAHSPE! A whole panorama of aerial and space vessels, described as though from today's newspapers.

Do you wonder at Einstein's theories? Then read OAHSPE! He could have gotten his information there! Uncounted thousands of tons of meteorites fall to Earth each day, yet space is nearly empty of them. OAHSPE knew it in 1882! Space is dark, say our daring astronauts. So did OAHSPE in 1882, and tells us why! Archaeologists have made amazing discoveries of ancient races and dead cities and civilizations since 1882. They might have discovered them sooner had they read OAHSPE. Ancient languages are described in OAHSPE; the key was "revised out" of the 1891 edition, restored in this one.

Just where is Heaven? What do you do there? Is there anything for YOU to do when you get there — what kind of occupation? Is there really a Hell? Who manages the Earth, the Solar System, the Universe — and how? How do the different religions fit into God's one Universe? OAHSPE tells all this, and a thousand more answers to man's most difficult questions.

WHAT IS the real history of the human race on this planet (and on all others)? What is Man's origin, purpose, destiny? How did Man rise from the beast? What are the secrets of submerged continents, of the Great Pyramid, of the Sphinx? What is the history of the Earth's major religions? Do they exist on other planets?

OAH SPE--What it is, and how written

Perhaps the best way to describe OAH SPE is in the words of the book itself: "A sacred history of the dominions of the higher and lower heavens on the Earth for the past twenty-four thousand years, being from the submersion of the continent of Pan in the Pacific Ocean, commonly called the Flood or Deluge, to the Kosmon (present) Era. Also a brief history of the preceding fifty-five thousand years, together with a synopsis of the cosmogony of the Universe; the creation of the planets; the creation of man; the unseen worlds; the labor and glory of gods and goddesses in the ethereal heavens; with the new commandments of Jehovih to man of the present day. With revelations from the second resurrection, formed in words in the thirty-third year of the Kosmon Era." The purpose of the book is: "To teach mortals how to attain to hear the Creator's voice, and to see His heavens, in full consciousness, whilst still living on the earth; and to know of a truth the place and condition awaiting them after death."

OAH SPE was written by a process known as automatic writing, on a Sholes typewriter (one of the very first), by John Ballou Newbrough, who was born on June 5, 1828, on a Springfield, Ohio farm. A college man, he specialized in medicine, particularly dentistry. After college he went to the goldfields of California, and also to Australia. Afterward he became a dentist in New York City. One morning in 1870, Newbrough went to the home of his dearest friend Edwin Augustus Davis (to whose memoirs we owe this information), who lived on Sixth Avenue, near the old Hay Market, and said: "I've come for your advice; I had quite an experience about 4 a.m. this morning. I was sleeping nicely when I felt a hand on my shoulder. A voice said: 'Wake up, doctor. Everything is all right. I only want to ask you a question, and we will go.'

"I sat up and answered: 'Yes, if I can.' The voice said: 'Would you like to perform a mission for Jehovih?'

"I rubbed my eyes and saw that the room was lit up with pillars of soft light so pleasing to the eyes that it was indescribable. I saw great numbers of beautiful spirits or angels. They did not have wings. I spoke: 'What is the mission, so that I may know whether to say yes or no?' The answer came back: 'Jehovih would like you to live spiritually for ten years, and at the end of that time we will come back and tell you what it is that we desire, for your body and mind are not sufficiently perceptible now.'

"What do you mean by living spiritually?"

"We want you never to kill anything, or eat anything that breathes; meat, fish, birds, reptiles. Live on nuts, fruit, vegetables. One other thing is very important: you must help people; give your services to people who need dental help, without pay, if they cannot pay. Do charity work' the voice said, and then the lights dimmed and went out, and the atmosphere changed back to its normal darkness. I got up and wrote down everything that had happened, then came over to talk to you."

Davis and Newbrough discussed the matter for hours, and during the conversation Newbrough revealed that he thought he had recognized three of the spirits, although he had not had a good look at them. He asked Davis if he thought the adventure was real, or only a dream.

"John," said Davis, "I don't believe it was a dream. I'd say, go ahead. Perhaps the ten year wait will be worth it, when you find out what it is that you are to do."

At 4 a.m. in the morning late in 1880, John Ballou Newbrough was again awakened from his slumber to find the same mysterious and beautiful lights filling his room. The same voice spoke; "You have done well. You have passed our test. Now we want you to buy a typewriter and place it on this table. We will thereafter awaken you one hour before dawn each morning, and you will sit in this chair before the typewriter and put your hands on the keys. You will buy plenty of paper and keep it always ready to use."

"I don't know how to use a typewriter."

"We will control your hands and arms, and perform the task for you, so don't worry. You must not look at what is written until it is finished."

There was further discussion and instruction, then the pillars of light dimmed and went out.

On the morning of January 1, 1881, having followed all instructions, the first writing session began at 4 a.m. As Newbrough later told it to his friend, Davis: "To my amazement as I sat in the chair, my hands went up and started to pound at the keys. It seemed to me that I was half asleep, but I saw everything I was doing. I saw no spirits, but I knew they were using my body and thought. I looked at my hands and fingers; they were going like mad.

"The papers seemed to pile up fast on the right side of the typewriter. As the days went by, I was doing more and more. At first I was thinking what am I writing about? My mind seemed blank, but I had never felt better in my life. I always locked my door after me, and it was locked when I came back. I noticed, though that there was a blank paper over the pile I had finished, and a paperweight on top. As I left my room the next morning I took particular notice of how the paperweight lay on the stack of finished work. When I returned that evening, I wanted to see if it had been moved, but it had not. But to my surprise, my bed had been made. Everything had been dusted and cleaned. I said to myself: 'The spirits are certainly working hard around here!' I heard a loud laugh, and the voice said: 'We are! We don't want you to worry about a thing. We are taking care of you, and no harm can come to you, Remember this!'

Every morning, before sunrise, until December 15, 1881, John Ballou Newbrough wrote at a speed physically almost impossible considering the crudity of this first typewriter, and finally the manuscript was complete.

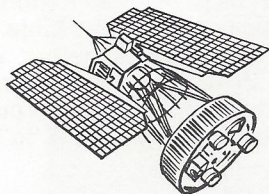

In 1882 the book was published, according to the instructions given Newbrough by his spirit authors. It is this original 1882 edition that has now been restored to availability with the publication of this photo reproduction.

In only one respect is this edition different from the original: it also contains reproductions of the oil paintings (first presented in the 1891 edition, also out of print) of Zarathustra, Po, Abram, Brahma and his wife Yu-Tiv, Ea-wah-tah (Hiawatha), Thothma (builder of the Great Pyramid), Capilya, Moses, Chine, Sakaya, Ka'Yu (Confucius) and Joshu. These paintings were done by Newbrough in total darkness in the same manner as the OAH SPE manuscript.

THE WORLD'S BEST NEWS REPORT ON THE MYSTERIOUS, UNUSUAL, PSYCHIC, UNKNOWN

—SEARCH—
The friendly

The pages of SEARCH are open to all who have something important to say concerning the occult, the unknown, the metaphysical, the controversial, the suppressed and allied subjects.

We are all interested in new things, in things previously unknown, in prying into the mysteries that surround us on all sides and make life such a complicated and wonderful adventure. It is necessary to our peril-fraught future as a civilized race that new things be brought out into the open where all of us can inspect them; that actual proof be presented to support the unknown acceptances of yesterday. Our moral development must keep pace with our mechanical advance. We are truly and honestly searching for the answers to the questions we begin to ask from our first reasoning days until the hour we die — when we go on to discover the answer to the greatest question of all.

In this great free America we have an advantage over half the world, in that we can do our own thinking and our own talking. We can exchange ideas, we can challenge old ones, we can devise new ones without fear of being clapped in a dungeon or ostracized as a heretic. Here knowledge and research is the recognized realm of activity of every person. That is why we have published the magazine called SEARCH, which we first introduced in November, 1953. We've become, in the words of one of our readers, "The greatest little magazine in the USA." He was enthusiastic, of course, but that's what American freedom does to people. It is the articles in SEARCH that make him so enthusiastic. They are thought-provoking, challenging articles, typified by an upward-looking spirit of inquiry, ranging from the lowliest investigator, the child who asks "Mommy, where did I come from?", to Dr. Rhine of Duke University, who is engaged in a scientific search for the soul. SEARCH asks many such questions, and as the answers are forthcoming, brings them to its readers honestly, competently and accurately; without bias, and without distortion or axegrinding implications.

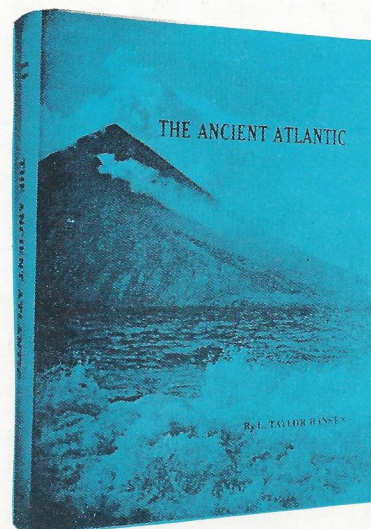

But no matter what the future may bring, the present has changed! We can't live as we did before; we've got to change our thinking, because if we don't, we're liable to perish from the Earth! For thousands of years man has been taught to accept a variety of statements, all offered without proof, as truth to be accepted without question. Today we are more adult. Where is Heaven? We have a certain conviction that we are smart enough not to be confused by a reasonable and demonstrable answer — if one can be found. We ask "What comes after death?" without angrily rejecting an answer that doesn't conform to the dogmatic one we had in mind. We are strong enough, courageous enough, and intelligent enough to be able to incorporate new outlooks into our thinking, and more, to require that such outlooks be backed up by evidence.

The Ancient Atlantic

By L. Taylor Hansen

The magnificent biography of an ocean! From the "beginning" when the continents were one, down through the eons encompassing ancient Atlantis and Lemuria, noble Greece and Egypt, to the present when science is rediscovering the peoples who lived prior to the great destruction, before Eden.

Where did man come from on this planet? How long has he been here? Who has he been - who is he now?

THE ANCIENT ATLANTIC is a scientific, scholarly book, being, literally, the story of the Atlantic ocean from the very beginning, with the creation of the continents, the formation of the ocean itself, the tremendous geological events that have culminated in the world we know today. It is also an archaeological and ethnological history of the development of the civilizations of man around that ocean - for it was on Atlantis, in the center of this ocean, where mankind began.

Also In PAPERBACK - $10.00

ISBN: 910122-24-5

The book contains 440 8-1/2 x 11 pages. It has 96 full-color illustrations and full-color maps.

range of present day scientific knowledge. (What they mean by that is a technology capable of traversing the universe—flying saucers are too similar to our own aircraft in ultimate capability to be able to fly to another star, for instance.) 3. There is no evidence indicating that sightings categorized as unidentified are extraterrestrial vehicles. (Absolutely true! Not if you mean travel from even the nearest star. Neither does the sighting of a cat in your backyard constitute evidence that there are elephants in your backyard! So, don't look for elephants, and don't look for starships! But DO look for something in between—something not from surface Earth, and not from the stars, but right here in our own atmosphere, precisely as the Russians have now so positively stated (and which is precisely the truth!).

The surface of the Earth is covered with gigantic navigational signs, such as the famous Peruvian markings. Many researchers contend they prove spacial navigators exist, because they can only be seen from "space". But the truth is, they cannot be seen from space. Any sign of habitation of this planet is lacking from even nearby orbits, and certainly not from the moon, or further. But the navigational signs DO exist, because they are ancient remnants of a time when what is happening now, happened then. We put "beacons" on the bottom of the oceans (like the Russian radio beacons under the polar seas to guide nuclear submarines). They put similar instructional and guiding signs on the "bottom" of their "ocean" for exactly the same purposes—to guide their "submarines" through dangerous and chaotic "waters" (we call some of these areas the Van Allen radiation belts). They even got the "fish", ancient man, to build these gigantic (and senseless in the viewpoint of man himself) pyramids, mounds, arrows, etc. An "angel" (or a Venusian) came to Noah (or to Adamski), and persuaded them to perform a job that needed doing. Bouncing a beam off the great pyramid with its precisely engineered sides gave instant computerized readings of position and direction and navigational instructions. The navigational areas were even named, and today we recollect them as the signs of the Zodiac. If you wanted to go from the atmospheric Venus to the atmospheric Mars, you navigated by the "charts" and used as your starting computing point, the pyramid at the "center of the Earth", which was a thing something similar to our Greenwich and zero longitude. It really was the "center".

In future issues of our magazines, chiefly FLYING SAUCERS, but also in our SEARCH and FORUM, we intend to pursue all these things to their ultimate conclusion. We've done it now for over 40 years, starting with science fiction (in which we began to weave the strange theories which have culminated today in such things as the information we are sending to you so urgently in this new Newsletter), and getting deeper into it with our founding of that great magazine FATE 25 years ago, finally with our own publishing house with (at present) four magazines and nearly 50 books and paperbacks, including that sensational book OAH SPE, in which we find so much to lead us to these new discoveries. But all through our publishing history, trying to get people to think, and to bring to them what we are convinced beyond any doubt is the truth about the real nature of our planet, we have been opposed by The Organization. Their goal is the opposite of ours—to control the mental processes along ordered and pre-determined lines; while ours is to stimulate the mental processes and give people the ability to think for themselves, to reason logically, to think creatively. Thinking is not an easy thing to do. It takes constant exercise—the brain is just like a muscle, if you don't use it, it atrophies. If the muscle is "wired" to respond to an electric stimulus, it only reacts, does not initiate. They want to "wire" your brain, I want to prod it into action on its own. They want to "program" it, I want to turn it loose to function freely and at greater personal capacity. Thus, I am the bitter (and I hope dangerous) enemy of The Organization. What I want to know is how successful I have been in the past, and whether or not I am going to be able to continue. How many of you, reading this, are with me? How many of you want me to continue? How many of you have actually been helped in your thinking by what I've given you in the past? How many of you will do what has to be done now, to prevent it all from coming to an end? This is the crisis moment. It is the crisis moment for many—such as Nixon (or a Democrat, if you prefer). There is a much more vicious Watergate than the hotel of that name facing the world. It is a plot against us all, and we are all being "bugged". There is only one way any of us can continue in our efforts just to think our own thoughts and remain free in our minds to do it—and that is to see to it that the meagre means of communication and exchange of information we have left to us are not snuffed out. It is a very simple thing—you need to buy those means of communication.

The last time I put out a Ray Palmer's newsletter, a surprising thing happened: many of you wanted to subscribe! Some even sent subscription money. That's the way this idea was born—you have in your hands the first of the new Newsletters, and this time I am asking you to subscribe to it. It may come out two or three times a year, it may come out ten times in a single year. It depends on what information of a vital and immediate nature comes to me. In January postal rates climb to 10¢ for a letter. Magazine rates go up 38%. Book rates go up again! The Organization is pricing the ability of the little man to communicate out of reach. But we can send out these "newsletters" if you pay the postage! That's why we think it is such a good idea to sell "subscriptions" to it for the very small sum of $2.00 per year. What about this issue? What was it worth to you? With the paper shortage fouling up our schedules on FLYING SAUCERS, you might not have gotten it for months, and maybe not at all. If you ever think my newsletters aren't worth the support, I'll refund your $2.00 any time!

The other way you can keep us in business (and believe me, we don't make a decent living at it!) is to buy our other books and magazines. Much of this newsletter is actually a catalog of everything we publish. It's Christmas time, and maybe just by giving a few gifts to others, or a few more to yourself, you can make sure that The Organization doesn't succeed in its Plan! You won't like it if they do! It won't be the kind of "romantic" you would prefer!

We've got the material now to finish Martian Diary. But we never will have the money to publish it if we can't convince you that all that is necessary is to decide if what you have in your hands is worth $2.00 a year. The Organization has its hand deeply in our pocketbook; just the postage increase, and the doubling of paper prices is now enough to sink us. I hope you believe what's in this newsletter—remember, it was the Russians who said it authoritatively and factually, to substantiate what I've said in so many devious ways for forty years. It was American scientists who finally proved a "contact" story. It was this recent "flap" that finally made the UFO respectable and to be taken seriously. Now that the truth has come up, and the solution is near, will The Organization be able to kill it, and complete their ancient plot? If you decide not to subscribe, just remember, every one who gets this Newsletter is a "you", and that would mean there'll be no subscribers at all! At least so few that it will mean "alas all thinking", as a famous playwright once said. But no matter, Merry Christmas to you all.

On page 24 you will find an order blank. Our list of books and magazines (everything we now have available) appears in this Newsletter. Some are very significantly important to add to understanding of what has been said in this special issue. Here is your chance to solve your Christmas gift problem, and help to solve ours, which is simply survival. Scan the catalog, use the order blank to list the books you want and their price, and mail it to me with your check. Most of all, if you like this Ray Palmer's Newsletter and want to get future letters, subscribe to it now (if you haven't already). It may well be the only thing to survive if we cannot resist the pressure now being mounted against us. By the way, 1976 will be our 50th year in this struggle. We'll reach it with a little push from you!

MYSTERY OF THE GODS
By W. Raymond Drake

MAN AND THE CYCLE OF PROPHECY
By Lee Nero

The origin of man has been the subject of much research and investigation. His present status has been critically evaluated by many "experts". His future has been speculated upon in great detail. But man remains an enigma! His past is hazy, his present is confusion, and his future is doubtful. Is the puzzle unsolvable? Can man understand man? Can man understand the whys and wherefores of his past, present and future or must he continue in the inky darkness of gross ignorance? The purpose of this book is to point the way out of the maze of false teachings entangling the minds of men. The present state of corruption enveloping man is highlighted in the book with emphasis toward those with pliable minds, our youth. As a man must learn to walk so must he also learn to think. He must learn to think for himself; he must understand his cyclic environment.

THIS DAY IS ENDING
By Robert Olsen

ISBN: 910122-33-4

This book is prophetic. It is in two parts: the future and the present. The second part is to let those of the future know more of this civilization than they will find in conventional history books, and perhaps arouse some controversy in the present generation.

ON THE SHORES OF THE INFINITE

What contact can we have with that other dimension? Can we travel to and fro between the spirit world, and between the planets of this solar system, all of them inhabited by those great souls that have gone before us, and who have come from only the Creator knows where to teach us the Way of Life, and to lead us and inspire us to our Destiny?

Thirty Years Among The Dead

This is a condensed version of Dr. Carl A. Wickland's Classic (and now out of print) book on abnormal psychology. It is a record of his work with obsession carried on with Mrs. Wickland, who was an accomplished medium. Together they cured many obsessed persons, persuading discarnate spirits to give up their hold on their victims, and thus restored their patients to normal, happy lives. This book is still years ahead of present day research in this field.

Mr. Lyons, who is in his eighties and who devoted his entire life to gaining the knowledge in this book, wrote it to explain and make understandable to the young citizens of this nation, and also to those older citizens who have already made their mark on this world, the evils and disadvantages of the present "way of life"; also to give them some understanding of the metaphysical basis of human life and a just and necessary code of ethics for the most beneficial conduct of their individual lives; to give them understanding of the permanent nature of life and of its continuance, what creation is and how it works, and how we all must fit into it.
